FOUR CENTS

Troops Ready In Berlin

Red Youth Rally On, No Violence Reported

BERLIN, May 27 — (AP) — American troops were placed in a "state of readiness" today as 400,000 young Germans massed here for giant Communist rallies.

Though no violence had developed so far and Red leaders jeered at the Western allies for their previously-expressed fears that an attack on West Berlin might develop, the Americans, British and French took no chances.

U. S. troops were restricted to their barracks, on the alert for any call, an official announcement said.

British forces went on a full alert at dawn yesterday, followed soon after by the French garrison.

East Berlin's Communist leaders meanwhile turned their sector into a giant amusement park for the youth assembling for Sunday's giant Whitlun Demonstration.

With a "Long Live Stalin" cheer, the Communists began a 12-hour program of sports festivals and pro-Soviet speeches to dazzle the "Free German Youth" (FDJ).

Berlin — hot spot of the cold war — was free from violence than at any time in recent months, though there still were some scattered incidents.

Two alleged Communist agents were arrested during the night for trying to abduct a 32-year-old political refugee from the Russian zone at the British sector elevated railway station.

Five FDJ members have fled to the Western Allied sectors for asylum. Six conscripts of the Eastern People's police, which Western officials claim is a disguised army, also have won refuge in West Berlin.

Alleged Embezzler Out On $2,000 Bond

CHILLICOTHE, May 27 — (AP) — Former Banker Nelson E. Reichelderfer, charged with embezzling about $7,000, is out on $2,000 bond today.

The 68-year-old Circleville man now faces arraignment in the U. S. District Court in Columbus. He posted the bond here yesterday and was released from Ross county jail.

Reichelderfer, former state bank examiner for 11 years, was executive vice president and cashier of the Circleville Savings & Banking Co.

FBI agents arrested him Thursday and charged him with falsifying entries in the bank's records to cover a shortage of about $7,000.

Nobody Can Fly That Low—But He Says So

Sheriff Howard Clark today received an unsigned letter written in poor grammar from a farmer in the vicinity of Salineville, asking that the pilot who "buzzed" his residence and killed 14 of his chickens be arrested.

The farmer, who said he was "broke" and had to walk eight miles to mail the letter, complained that the plane frightened both him and his wife. He described the plane as having four wings.

The farmer said the reason the letter was not signed is because he didn't want to antagonize anybody. The letter bore a Salineville postmark.

Draper-Adler Decision Due

Jury Locked Seven Hours Yesterday

HARTFORD, Conn., May 27 — (AP) — Climaxed nearly today in the $200,000 libel suit brought by Entertainers Paul Draper and Larry Adler to defend their reputations and earning power from charges of Communist sympathies.

A federal jury, locked in debate for almost seven hours yesterday, was called back into session at 9 a. m. after a night's sleep.

It weighed these possible verdicts:

To find for Draper or Adler or both and give them either substantial or token damages.

To find for the defendant, Mrs. Hester McCullough, a 32-year-old Greenwich, Conn., housewife, who claims she had every right to call the entertainers pro-Red.

The long debate among the panel of eight women and four men indicated the possibility of a hung jury as the result of the four-week trial.

The libel suit was based on a letter Mrs. McCullough sent the Greenwich Community Concerts Association, protesting its sponsorship of a Draper-Adler concert in January, 1949.

Students Chosen Quaker Royalty

Annual Dedicated To John Olloman

As the high school term ends extra-curricular activities vie with scholastic requirements for undergraduates' attention.

The Quaker King and Queen were announced in an assembly Friday. Richard Gleckler and Dana Rice were chosen by Fibber McGee and Molly for the honors.

The Quaker annual is dedicated to faculty member, John Paul Olloman. Miss Betty Uliny and R. W. Hilgendorf, publications advisors, and the editors and business manager of the weekly and annual presented awards to members of the staffs.

Dick Brautigam will edit the Quaker weekly next year while Barbara Ross will be the annual's editor and Paul Colananni will serve as business manager of both publications.

A large audience enjoyed the fourth annual spring concert by the high school vocal groups last night in the auditorium. Seventeen selections were presented by 180 voices in various combinations. Besides the soloists, the Robed Choir, Beginning Chorus and the Girls Chorus, all under the direction of Thomas Crothers, gave a well-rounded program.

Fred Theiss, senior, was chosen bandsman of the year by his fellow band members.

A movie projector will be given to the high school as the gift of the 1950 senior class. It was the unanimous choice of the class.

Paul Harp and June Brunner attended school every day during their High School career, a search of the records reveals. Donna Schoss missed a half day and Helen Schuller missed one day.

Elizabeth Fultz was installed as president of the Hi-Tri Thursday evening when 64 girls gathered at the First Baptist Church for the annual dinner and candlelight installation service.

Other new officers are: Vice president, Helen Gottschling; secretary, Donna Stoffer; and treasurer, Marilyn Lesch.

When the Thespian Club held formal initiation of new members recently at Shady Lawn in Youngstown, 21 students were taken into the actor's club.

They are: Jackie Kuntzman, Joan Domencetti, John Votaw, George Vaughn, Barbara Ross, Marie Vender, Joyce Lehman, Joan Whitten, Pat Coe, Marilyn Burns, Susan Menegos, Joanne Probert, Katy Umbach, Art Heron, Phillis Flick, Shirley Hilliard, Roland Herron, Ann Ruffer and Darrell Askey.

The U. N. secretary general—giving impressions of his recent visit to the Soviet Union—added that Russia had its soccer fans, much like the Brooklyn Dodgers' rooters.

"Compared with what I had seen before," Lie told reporters, "the picture of the ordinary daily life in Moscow impressed me. I have seen Moscow in 1921, in 1932, in 1946 and now in 1950. 'I would not wish to give any wrong impression, but from what an ordinary tourist can see in the streets, in the shops and so on, I think the progress made is a very good one, when I compare what I saw now with what I saw in 1946."

Six Inquiries Check Trolley, Truck Crash

Toll At 32 Dead; Conductor Arrested For Leaving Scene

CHICAGO, May 27 — (AP) — A half dozen separate investigations were being made today in connection with the street car-gasoline truck crash in which 32 persons were killed Thursday.

Some of the points the investigators are attempting to clear appeared to be the rate of speed the crowded trolley was moving and the discrepancy in passengers' accounts on the operation of the car's rear doors.

Thirty-one of the estimated 48 persons in the trolley perished minutes after the car crashed into the big gasoline truck. The driver of the double trailer truck, which contained some 8,000 gallons of gasoline, also was killed.

Thirty others were hurt. The spreading flames touched off fires near the accident scene at 62nd and State streets, on the city's southside. Five two-story buildings and several automobiles were destroyed.

The death toll of 32, the National Safety Council said, was the largest to result from a motor vehicle collision in the nation. It had been 33, but coroner officials revised it last night after a complete examination of the charred bodies.

Thirty of the dead had been identified. They included 15 Negroes. All were Chicagoans.

Police, who started their probe of the accident immediately after the crash, arrested the trolley conductor yesterday on a charge of leaving the scene of an accident. The conductor, William C. Liddell, 28, a Negro who escaped the fiery car with several passengers, was released on $100 bond posted by the Chicago Transit Authority, which operates the city's street car and elevated lines.

Liddell, who disappeared after the crash, testified at a hearing held by the CTA yesterday. He said his attempts to open the rear doors of the flaming car were blocked by the panic-stricken riders trying to smash down the doors.

Charles G. Klein, 44, a flagman, at the accident scene, said he was unsuccessful in attempting to slow down the street car before it made a left turn on a temporary turn-around. The car, he said, moved past him at about 30 miles an hour.

However, Ralph Budd, CTA chairman, said an inspection of the switch indicated the car was traveling not more than 10 or 12 miles an hour.

A CTA spokesman said at the hearing that the dead motorman, Paul Manning, 42, had been involved in 10 "minor" accidents in the last 17 months. He said responsibility for three of the accidents were charged to Manning, who had been a motorman for four years.

U. S. May Close Czech Agency

New York Consulate In Reprisal Move

WASHINGTON, May 27 — (AP) — The United States was reported set today for a new crack-down on one of the Soviet bloc countries—this time Czechoslovakia.

Officials indicated the Czech consulate general in New York might be closed as one possible result of a demand by Prague for a second reduction in the American diplomatic staff in Czechoslovakia.

The consulate general is the last establishment Communist Czechoslovakia has in this country aside from the embassy in Washington. Consulates at Pittsburgh and Cleveland were shut down this month after an enforced two-thirds cut in the number of American official representatives in Czechoslovakia.

The latest exchange presumably would mean the closing of the American consulate at Bratislava, leaving only the embassy at Prague, manned by a skeleton staff.

Authorities ruled out the likelihood of an order restricting movements of Czech officials in this country to 35 mile radius around Washington, such as was ordered yesterday for the Romanian staff of seven persons here. The Czechs, unlike the Romanians, thus far have not hampered the movements of Americans in their country.

The sole certainty was that the State Department was set to go a step further with the tough tit-for-tat policy toward the Soviet satellites which has been followed in recent months.

Czechoslovakia, charging that Americans have been involved in espionage against the Communist regime, last month ordered the Prague and Bratislava staffs cut from a total of 76 to 26.

The American response on May 13 was to order a proportionate reduction by the Czechs in this country. The closing of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh consulates followed.

Last week Czechoslovakia demanded a further cut, to a maximum of 12 Americans and seven locally-employed aides.

Second Quashing Motion Filed In Roberts Case

LISBON, May 27 — Prosecuting Attorney James L. McDonald has been advised that counsel for W. E. Roberts, former county superintendent of schools, has filed another motion to quash the indictment, charging conspiracy to defraud.

Roberts contends the state in its bill of particulars had not made the charges definite and certain.

The motion filed in the Carroll county court where the case was taken on a change of venue, will be ruled upon by Judge Frank Cope. Roberts is scheduled to go on trial Wednesday on an indictment charging embezzlement.

Hit-Skip Motorist Sideswipes Truck

State patrolmen are seeking the hit-skip driver of a station wagon who sideswiped a truck-trailer driven by John Henry, 32, of Empire, Ohio, and ran two approaching cars off the road at the junction of Routes 30 and 7 near Cannons Mill, at 9:45 p. m. Friday.

The left front fender and the left side of the truck cab and right side of the unidentified station wagon were damaged.

No One Hurt In Mishap

No one was injured in an accident at 7:50 p. m. Friday on Route 30, 4½ miles south of Lisbon, when the car driven by Orlin W. Anderson, 34, of Warren, going west on Route 30, collided with the rear end of the car by Norman Weaver, 55, of R. D. 2 Lisbon.

Patrolmen said Weaver was going east on Route 30 and was making a left turn when he failed to clear the highway before the Anderson car hit his vehicle.

Weaver was arrested for failure to yield the right-of-way. The left front end of the Anderson car and the right rear of the Weaver car were damaged.

Crashes Through Fence

The bottom of the Millville hill was the scene of an accident at 10:45 p. m. Friday. Luther C. Riggs, Jr. 25, of Cleveland told patrolmen he was cut off the highway by a large semi outfit.

The Riggs car crashed through approximately 50 feet of road-side fence before coming to a stop. He received a bruised nose. The left side and front end of the car were damaged.

Police, Patrol Plan Automobile Check

Salem police and the local state highway patrol will cooperate during June in conducting the annual Ohio traffic safety check in this area.

The campaign will require that Salem motorists have their cars checked at a filling station, patrol barracks or police station during the month for all safety equipment. To enforce the check, the patrol and police will hold a series of road blocks during the month.

Motorists will be arrested if their cars fall below standard in certain items such as poor brakes, too many faulty lights, poor steering or bad windshields. On other minor infractions, they'll be warned to have them repaired. The officers will issue black and orange stickers once a car has passed inspection. These will be displayed on windshields.

It is pointed out that the safety checks will not be made by any of the local garages, which have been conducting their safety campaign, for which they issued green stickers.

Engineers Hired For Turnpike

Surveys Will Set Super Road Route

COLUMBUS, May 27 — (AP) — Consultants for the famed Pennsylvania turnpike will make surveys for Ohio's toll super-highway.

The Ohio Turnpike commission yesterday unanimously approved hiring engineering firms to plan a route between the Indiana line and a union with the Pennsylvania turnpike south of Youngstown in about six months.

As a result, Highway Director T. J. Kauer will contract with the J. E. Greiner Co., of Baltimore, to make engineering surveys for $267,500, and with a New York firm to make traffic and revenue studies for $70,000.

The Greiner firm was general consultant for the original Pennsylvania turnpike and made surveys for its eastern and western extensions. The New York concern made traffic and revenue studies for the projects.

Kauer recommended hiring the two firms at a special meeting of the turnpike commission. He said their figures were under those asked by three other companies invited to submit contract proposals.

Evacuate Base Early Today, British Report

Stronghold Given Up Day After Claims Of Victory Made

HONG KONG, May 27 — (AP) — The Chinese Nationalists handed the Wanshan (Lactone) island to the Communists today, the Royal British Navy reported.

A spokesman said evacuation of the blockade base 40 miles southwest of Hong Kong was completed by Nationalist warships at 8 a. m. In giving up the Wanshan the Nationalists left the trade-sharved Communist metropolis of Canton open to foreign sea commerce for the first time in more than eight months.

The Royal Navy report came only a day after the Nationalists had announced a whopping victory over Communist invasion.

The Nationalists claimed yesterday that 4,000 Red troops had been "annihilated" in their second attempt to take the island by amphibious operations. The Nationalists beat off the first try a week ago.

The British Navy spokesman said 1,000 Nationalist soldiers had been taken off the Wanshan by Nationalist ships and transported to Lingling island preparatory to final evacuation to Formosa. Lingling is about 20 miles south of the Wanshan.

Confident Living

By DR. NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

Creative Power Of Your Great Memories

IN MOST of the United States, next Tuesday will be celebrated as Memorial or Decoration Day, a holiday sacred to the memory of those who sacrificed their lives in the cause of their country. (In other states this day of memory is observed at earlier dates.) Such a day is, or should be, a solemn occasion, an opportunity to think back to the great events and the great men who have moulded our country and our lives.

And, when we look back, the can serve to stimulate us and release within us a creative power flood of memories we recapture for good. Sometimes I take down from my bookshelf one of the noblest and most gracious books written in our time. It is entitled "Pilgrim's Way" and it was written by the gifted former Governor General of Canada, John Buchan, Lord Tweedsmuir. For sheer beauty of English, for nobility of thought, it is excelled by no book I remember reading in many a year. In it, Buchan writes: "Time does not destroy, but time enshrines. When we are children and we experience something we cannot fully interpret, time overlays it not to blot it out but to protect it until we are fully ready to interpret it and to savor its meaning."

Dr. Peale

The memories which come to us from our past bring a picture of men who brought a Book to this wild and strange land, a Book containing wise and noble ideas. They established churches and the family altar and taught all people to venerate God. And this became the greatest nation of modern times, founded upon religion. That is the memory for us to hold, for it has creative power for the future.

There in the past we can find the faith and courage and hope to enable us to guarantee that no sacrifice has been in vain. There we can find the moral strength to make whatever fresh sacrifice we may be called on to make. On this faith we as a people can go confidently into the future.

"Man is stumbling blindly through a spiritual darkness while toying with the precarious secrets of life and death."

"Ours is a world of nuclear giants and ethical infants. We know more about war than we know about peace, more about killing than we know about living."

WHAT AN INDICTMENT of all of us! And what a challenge! If we use the creative power of our great memories to find the truth, we can learn how to live lives which will reflect credit on those whose deeds we honor.

Atop the City Hall in Philadelphia there is a Colossal statue of William Penn. He said many wise things, but one thing he said should be broadcast regularly from his pinnacle, written across every schoolhouse, state-house and public building in the land, and engraved on every heart. The words thunder down with the force of eternal truth: "Unless we are ruled by God we will be governed by tyrants."

West Proposes German Unity

Free Election Plan Offered To Russia

BONN, Germany, May 27—(AP)—The Three Western powers challenged Russia today to clear the way for uniting Germany by consenting to completely free-all-German elections tied in with guarantees of full individual freedoms.

The time element of the statement of the three Western high commissioners to the Russian command in Germany was significant. It was issued while world attention was focused on the rally of 500,000 Communist-led German youth in Berlin.

Arrested Woman Locks Self In Car

CLEVELAND, May 27—(AP)—

For two and a half hours last night, Julia Semanchik, 37, sat in her locked car and defied a group of angry policemen outside.

Patrolman Joseph Sawyer and

William Brown had arrested her for crashing a red light and driving with only a temporary permit.

(A temporary permit requires that a licensed driver be along also.)

But when they got her to a district

police station for questioning,

she quickly locked the car windows and sat pat.

The cops, with no success at all,

cajoled, called in policewomen

and even attempted to reach relatives.

Eventually, however, two police men used their wire gadget to open a window and the squirming woman was carried into the station.

She was held for questioning after a matron found a roll of

$2,400 in $100 and $50 bills in her dress.

A relative later told Policewoman

Bella Smith that she got the money through the sale of some property.

The policewoman said she learned the woman had bought the car on May 19 and had been living in it until last night.

Ohio became a state in 1803.

POLITICAL AIDE—Samuel Reber, career foreign service officer, was named by the State Department as political adviser to John J. McCloy, U. S. High Commissioner for Germany.

the theme of a splendid address given by Rev. David E. Moly-

of Goshen Union High School

Friday evening.

Rev. Molyneux, a former pastor of the Salem Presbyterian Church, told the graduates “You are going into a world that is very much in need of men and women of courage.”

“This is a world that needs men and women of character. This is a world where opportunity is awaiting you,” he said. The speaker was introduced by Supt.

C. G. Long.

Rev. Kenneth Barss, pastor of the Methodist Church, and Rev.

R. E. Mosher, pastor of the Friends Church, also had a part on the program, and the high school band furnished music.

The class was presented to the Board of Education by John E.

school. Lavern Owen, president of the Board of Education, gave diplomas to 36 graduates.

Something Different

RESULTS of the polling being done in Ohio by the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation are being combed over carefully by legislators for clues to future decision about agricultural policy.

Since the poll is one of those things which can be interpreted to suit almost any point of view, this is to point out one significant finding which may be ignored because it has a bearing on all points of view. The farmers are not of one mind about subsidies.

The only point of view with a clear majority is favor for the general idea of the existing price-support law. But there are extreme differences of opinion about details. Only a handful of farmers seem to be in complete agreement with the law. Apparently, at least half of those who favor the law's general purpose want its terms changed. And apparently a third of Ohio's farmers are in favor of no government support for farm income at all.

This is something different in public opinion about government policy—this skepticism by beneficiaries. Farmers seem to be the only compact special-interest group with strong doubts about government aid. They are keeping their fingers crossed. They doubt that either the existing farm policy, or the projected Brannan plan, which is being hailed by the Truman administration as its secret weapon in the battle for the farm vote.

Price support for agricultural commodities is the most discussed of all federal subsidies, and a large part of the discussion originates with the farmers themselves. If that could be said of every other special-interest group which is supposed to be "grateful" to Washington for blessings received and promised, there would be less reason to worry about surviving the gimmicks.

Object Lesson In Chicago

THIRTY-THREE persons dead after a Chicago streetcar collided with a gasoline truck, an equal number of injured and many thousands of dollars' worth of property damaged add up to an object lesson in a public hazard which hasn't been given sufficient attention.

Every motorist has thought many times of the responsibility of wholesale disaster if the huge tank rigs carrying gasoline on highways and streets were to be involved in an accident. The obvious reason so few of them have been involved is the skill of their operators, plus the wide berth which most motorists give such outfits when they are encountered.

But the hazard is always present. It is waiting to materialize whenever an unforeseen crash in the flow of traffic creates the circumstances for a tragedy. What happened in Chicago could happen here or in any other city. Or it could happen in some other setting with comparable loss of life and property.

It is axiomatic that in this fast-moving country the causes of potential trouble outrun precautions to avert trouble. Nearly every safety measure in effect has been the result of some tragedy which brought a common hazard into sharp focus. The Chicago gasoline-truck disaster has brought into focus the hazard of moving highly inflammable liquids over public streets and highways.

Sleeping Dogs And Dry Wells

THE convention of the American Water Works Association in Philadelphia runneth over, as it were, with hydraulic wisdom. Its delegates are responsible for quenching the public thirst, filling its bathtubs, putting out its fires and watering its grass plots in droughts. They have learned their lessons in a hard school.

Two adages block the pipelines of their knowledge. The first adage is that "you never miss the water till the well runs dry." The second is that "you should let sleeping dogs lie." Combined, they threaten to convert many a thriving community into an area of desolate ruins before the year 2000 A. D. Unfortunately, the water-supply experts are unable to do the one thing which could avert such a catastrophe quickly and surely. They are restrained by law, politics and personal ethics from shutting off the water before the wells run dry—or the rivers, reservoirs, lakes and basins which provide the public water supply.

That would wake up the sleeping dogs in a hurry. It would bring water-users to grips with the bone-dry realities of what it would mean if an urban area ran out of water. It would point up the greatest single fact about the water supply—that it is no more, no less than it was 10,000 years ago or will be 10,000 years hence—but the trick is to secure it for the uses of humanity. There is no shortage of water on the earth; there is only a shortage of human wisdom about its use. Wells run dry without warning because no one bothered to conserve their dwindling supplies. And sleeping dogs sleep on, until they are jarred awake by the panic-cry—"drouth!"

Socialism Or What?

By GEORGE S. BENSON

IN THESE DAYS of conflicting ideologies, it is vitally important to the future of our country for our people to know more about Socialism. Many are confused over what constitutes Socialism. Thus they sometimes are aiding the establishment of Socialism by approving measures whose socialistic implications are not apparent to them.

Many Americans, on the other hand, frankly want some Socialism, believe we can measure the amount we wish to have—and have no more. Some recent surveys of public thinking on Socialism are revealing.

The Psychological Corporation, the oldest nationwide poll of public opinion, found that 75 per cent of our people are against "Socialism," but that most of them approve a number of federal government programs which they themselves classify as Socialism. About half of the 75 per cent, for instance, consider Federal housing to be socialistic—and yet half of them favor it.

According to the carefully studied conclusions of this survey, 25 per cent of the Americans who are opposed to "Socialism," favor food subsidies for farm products, 18 per cent favor peacetime price controls and 43 per cent favor peacetime rent control. Only 37 per cent consider TVA and similar regional programs developed with Federal funds to be socialistic; and 66 per cent are for them. One-fourth of the American people, the survey concludes, consider the compulsory social security taxes socialistic; 81 per cent favor them.

In another survey, the Industrial News Review polled the nation's newspapers. Results showed the press overwhelmingly opposed to "Socialism" and with keen understanding of the doctrine and its practices; however there were some disturbing facts revealed. Seventy-five American newspapers out of 1,362 replying to the questionnaire—or about 5 1/2 per cent—do not consider the proposed Federal compulsory health measure, nationalizing the medical profession, to be socialistic.

Forty-three newspaper editors do not feel their personal liberty would be endangered if the government took over ownership or control of the newspaper business. Eleven per cent do not consider public ownership and operation of basic enterprise, such as the electric industry, to be socialistic. Two per cent of the editors and six per cent of the population as a whole favor Socialism for America, according to the two surveys. And that's far too many.

In my column last week I mentioned that Communist and Socialist propagandists have been trying to convince employee groups that they have a right to participate in the profits of a business or industry solely on the basis of "Social Justice" and ignoring the capitalist principal that says a man's fairly-earned wealth or property belongs to him and him alone. These propagandists have made some headway even with people whose every inclination is to be loyal to the basic American principals.

In Little Rock last week, the people held a local referendum and approved a Federal housing project—the money to come, said the advocates, as a "gift." Among endorsers of the "gift" housing project were the Chamber of Commerce, a number of women's clubs, labor leaders and individual business and professional people. A Little Rock newspaper, urging approval of the project, said: The money has been appropriated by Congress, it will be spent, and the citizens of Little Rock will pay their share in Federal taxes whether or not Little Rock chooses to participate in the program.

That's a hard-headed practical viewpoint, but if everybody's going to grow and grow and so is the national debt and taxation. These actions and samplings of thinking around the country indicate an important void in the public understanding of Socialism and its full implications. Public ownership or control of enterprise, public operation of a profession such as medicine, public housing for able-bodied citizens, any enforced distribution of wealth that denies property rights—these are all standards of Socialism in any Socialist textbook.

Exasperated Exacerbation

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON SENATORS seem to charm themselves and one another with what they have to say. They sit there, talking or listening to one another for hours.

And when one of them slips in a high-level word, the others usually nod and never bat an eye. This week it was dictionary. All in one day they had different trouble and trouble with one another.

Senator Aiken, the mild and kindly Republican from Vermont, was reading from a memorandum by the government's Budget Bureau. What the man who wrote the memo was trying to say was this:

If the senate wiped out a certain minor government agency, the people there would be unhappy and pretty shaky about finding another government job. That would have been the simple way to say it.

But the Budget Bureau man wasn't simple, so what he actually said was this: If the agency was wiped out, the workers there would suffer an "exacerbation of that sense of isolation and insecurity..."

At that point Senator Cain, the Washington Republican who used to be a paratrooper landed on his feet. He told Aiken he wanted to know how to spell "exacerbation" so he could look it up in a dictionary.

Aiken had to spell it twice for him. In a wink and a nod Cain was back on his feet with information. He said the dictionary said:

"Exacerbation: The act of exacerbating or the state of being exacerbated; increased severity, as in the symptoms of a disease."

(He might have added, but didn't, that the dictionary also says exacerbate means to irritate or make bitter. So, apparently, the Budget Bureau man meant the workers would be irritated if they lost their jobs.)

THE SENATE had hardly passed through this semantic crisis when Senator Tom Connally, the Texas Democrat who has some white hair and a lot of sarcasm, got up.

He asked the senate to approve President Truman's Point Four Program—giving skilled American help to backward countries. Right there Senator Taft got on his feet to protest.

Taft, the Ohio Republican, is a fast talker but hardly a match for Connally. Taft said he thought Connally was asking the senate to approve the program as a "matter of course."

This must have exasperated Connally because the Texan replied: "The senator from Texas (meaning himself) did no such thing, notwithstanding the supererogation of the distinguished senator from Ohio who seems to know more about less than anyone else I know."

"Supererogation" in turn must have exasperated Taft because he was back on his feet, demanding: "What does the senator mean by 'supererogation'? I want an explanation of the term."

There are various dictionary definitions for supererogation—such as "to perform in excess, to pay out, over and above..." but Connally brushed them all aside, without mentioning them. He said:

The senator (meaning Taft) can look in the dictionary for it. I do not have time to educate the senator from Ohio."

HAVING DISPOSED of Taft, Connally went on to explain that, of course, some of the language in the bill to set up the Point Four Program was a little purple. "These," Connally said, "are high-flown expressions designed to create the right kind of climate." That brought Senator Donnell, Missouri Republican, to his feet.

Donnell has a double habit: Of quizzing other senators when they make long speeches, and of making long speeches himself. He asked Connally what he meant by the "right kind of climate."

"Warm in winter, cold in summer," Connally said, not helping Donnell's dilemma at all. But Donnell's little bit more, he said the purple language to create the "right kind of climate" was meant to encourage American businessmen to invest abroad.

This apparently not only exasperated Donnell but exasperated him, too. He said he'd like to answer Connally. Said Connally: "Not with a speech. I want an answer."

This must have caused an acute exasperation (growing hot) in Donnell, for he replied: "I cannot speak without speaking. I cannot discuss a matter without alluding to it."

Said Connally: "I have observed that the senator from Missouri cannot speak without a great deal of speech."

Brush-Off

GM Formula Aimed At Industrial Peace

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON CHARLES E. WILSON, president of General Motors, is a happy man—he feels that a load has been lifted off his mind and the minds of his associates for a period of five years and that the new agreement with the United Automobile Workers (CIO) will set a pattern for constructive labor-management relations.

David Lawrence labor-management relations.

That's what the chief executive of the nation's largest business today told this correspondent in emphasizing some of the reasons why General Motors made various wage concessions in return for an assurance of productive efficiency.

Asked particularly why General Motors agreed not to lower their pension payments when a change in the federal law on social-security schedules brings employees higher payment at retirement, Mr. Wilson said that companies which had been counting on reducing their payments for private pensions would soon find themselves face to face with this issue anyway across the bargaining table.

MR. WILSON intimated that, instead of haggling over these issues in intermittent negotiations during the next five years, he preferred to settle them now as they probably would be settled eventually anyhow. For, while there are clauses in some company agreements recently consummated on the pension issue as such for five years, there are other clauses which will mean an annual reopening of wage issues and major part of the increased expenses of the new labor-management contract. He is counting heavily on the value of stability in labor relations and on an atmosphere of cooperation engendered by a mutually satisfactory agreement between the union and the company.

Mr. Wilson is confident that the cost-of-living formula which General Motors has introduced will vindicate itself. He thinks it has a psychological value in that it can go up or down according to changing conditions. He feels that the new contract is so clearly written that it doesn't permit any tinkering with the cost-of-living index itself, which is the key to wage adjustments.

"What we were after and hope we have achieved," he concluded, "is that instead of friction and industrial warfare we and our employees can enjoy a period of reasonableness and peace—and we hope that it sets a pattern in that respect for our negotiations in the future without the necessity of strikes."

Poor Approach

IF the excise tax reductions tentatively approved by the House Ways and Means Committee should be enacted, $1,000,000,000 would be sliced off federal revenues.

Given the present badly unbalanced budget, the committee can't be blamed for trying to make up at least part of this prospective loss. Still, there's doubtful wisdom in the plan just endorsed by the group to apply a 10 per cent withholding tax against corporate dividends.

The idea would be to catch individual income tax evaders. Government experts estimate that about $1,000,000,000 in taxes due on dividends now goes uncollected. The withholding system would provide for collection of the tax from the corporations, before dividends are paid out.

No one wants to sanction tax evasion. But a withholding tax on dividend payments will tend to solidify a basic flaw in the U. S. tax structure—the double taxation of corporate earnings. These returns are taxed as corporate income and then again as individual earnings.

The Committee for Economic Development, acknowledged as one of the most enlightened business planning groups, has long campaigned for an end to this practice. In contrast, the defense of double taxation seems feeble.

Why take action which may perpetuate this apparent inequity?

Too Nosey

Sen. Millard E. Tydings, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations subcommittee investigating alleged Communists in government, was holding an impromptu press conference in the Capitol corridor after an executive session. A photographer made a picture of the gathering, just as Senator Tydings rubbed his nose. The conference stopped right there while the senator stormed at the photographer. "Now look! If that picture shows me pulling my nose, I want you to destroy the plate," The photographer promised.

Jingle Man

By HAL BOYLE

Novel Writing Hopes Die

NEW YORK MYRON MAHLER worked his way through college acting as a country fair Barker for a trained male act. He also sold horseshoes, corn cobs and hair curlers.

But all the while he dreamed of writing the great American novel. Today, at 36, Myron Mahler is a success. He writes singing commercials for the radio. This talent for turning out musical jingles has helped make him vice president of an advertising agency.

And who is worrying about the great American novel? Not Mahler. He is content to have been a pioneer in a bold new art form that has swept the United States like virus "X."

"Jingles have permeated the life of America in the last 15 years," said Mahler, a slender, intense man with a scholarly air. "Today there are literally thousands of them on the radio and television."

"THE SINGING commercial is becoming the great American folk music. Children now sing them as if they were popular songs."

"They become so accustomed to them that some children's digestive apparatus is thrown out of gear if their favorite jingle is suddenly removed from their environment. When a program time is switched, desperate mothers write in asking to buy a photograph disc of a jingle, explaining:

"Our Johnny refuses to eat his cereal since you changed your program hour."

"This reaction amazes even us a little," said Mahler with considerable satisfaction.

Some adults complain singing commercials cause them indigestion, too, but for a different reason, and even kindle vague homicidal impulses.

"AT A PARTY people come up to me sometimes and say, 'I'd like to kill you,'" laughed Mahler. "But they are usually just joking. Often they ask me to sit down at a piano and play my jingles for them."

Two radio stations in the metropolitan area have singing commercials entirely, but Mahler feels they are going against the trend.

"Frankly, I think jingles are here to stay," he said. "I don't believe there is any danger of their being used to death. Surveys show that many people regard them as the least objectionable kind of radio advertising. And nothing gives a product recognition value quicker than a good jingle."

Jingle writing has become a profession, and a number of people make more out of them than the average author does from a novel.

"The pay for a successful jingle may range anywhere from $50 to several thousand dollars," said Mahler. "Two men who wrote a jingle about a soft drink are supposed to have made $25,000, plus royalties, from it."

HE HIMSELF got into the business by accident. One of his ad firm's clients wanted a singing jingle. None of the jingles submitted by professional writers suited him.

"I thought I could do better myself," he said. "So that night I went home and composed one. It was accepted, and it's been on the radio ever since—for six years."

Mahler said the air time of the average singing commercial is about 20 seconds. The only equipment necessary to write them is a stop watch, a sense of rhythm, a small knowledge of music, and a feeling for words.

"I usually compose mine at the office now," he said gravely. "I beat them out on a toy xylophone."

Rita Clare Pottorf Becomes
Bride Of Jack Vern Hovis

IN A BALLERINA GOWN of lace and nylon net over satin, Miss Rita Clare Pottorf made a beautiful bride Friday evening when she and Jack Vern Hovis were married in the sanctuary of the First Presbyterian Church.

The double-ring service uniting the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Clair Pottorf, of R. D. 3, Salem, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Hovis of Vine ave., was performed by Rev. Harold L. Ogden. The church was filled with relatives and friends of the couple.

The nuptial prelude, played by Miss Anna Cook, organist, included "Meditation" (Thais), "Nuptial Song," "Spring Song," "I Love Thee," "Clare de Lune" and "To a Wild Rose." She also accompanied Mrs. H. D. Hough of Fayette City, Pa., who sang "Because," "If I Could Tell You" and "The Lord's Prayer" as the couple knelt at the altar.

The strains of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin heralded the approach of the wedding party. The chancel was banked with cistonium and Boston ferns, grape and English ivy and arrangements of white snapdragons and feverfew and also was lighted by tapers in four seven-branch candelabra.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of chantilly-type lace (over satin) fashioned with a fitted bodice and long sleeves. The deep yoke of nylon marquisette, had appliques of lace, as did the bouffant ballerina-length net skirt.

From a tiara of Stephanotis fell a veil of net. The groom's gift, a rhinestone necklace, complemented her costume. Lilies of the valley and maidenhair fern showered from her arm bouquet of Stephanotis.

Miss Lauretta Dennis of Richmond, Ind., attended the bride in a gown of sand colored chiffon. She carried a bouquet of pansies and yellow roses arranged with maidenhair fern. In her hair she wore flowers to match those in the bouquet.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Pottorf chose a gown of aqua crepe and lace, while Mrs. Hovis wore rose crepe. Stephanotis centered their corsages of lilies of the valley.

Eugene Hovis served his brother as best man. Ushers were his school friends, Joseph Green of Youngstown, Ralph Dunbar of Canton, William Winsley of VanWert, and a cousin, Charles Morris of Butler, Pa.

The chapel of the church where the reception was held was transformed into a virtual bower of blossoms with spiraea, wild crabapple and dogwood.

Mrs. Gertrude Stewart and Mrs. Bertha Hoopes poured, and Mrs. Phillip White and Mrs. David Carey served the five-tiered wedding cake to the 225 guests. The confection was topped with lilies of the valley to complete the green and white theme used in the linen-laid refreshment table appointments.

Assisting in serving were Mrs. Ralph Dunbar of Canton, Mrs. Joseph Green of Youngstown and Miss Mary Lou Pate of Youngstown, cousin of the groom.

Mrs. Edith Bowles was in charge of the guest register.

After Mr. Hovis graduates Sunday with a bachelor of science in pharmacy degree from Ohio Northern, the newlyweds will leave on a 10-day trip to Tulsa, Okla., where they will visit her brother, Newell Pottorf, and family. On their return they will reside at 253 Vine ave. for the summer.

For traveling, the new Mrs. Hovis wore a two-piece dress of Iceland blue with a "packable" beige-colored top and hat, dark brown accessories and a carnation corsage.

A graduate of Salem High School, Mrs. Hovis received her bachelor of science degree in home economics from Ohio State University. She belongs to Phi Upsilon Omicron, honorary sorority, and Alpha Delta Pi, social sorority. She is employed as home economist with the Youngstown Ohio Edison Co.

Mr. Hovis graduated from Youngstown Woodrow Wilson High School and served for three and a half years in the Pacific war theater. A member of Phi Mu Delta Fraternity, he will be employed as a pharmacist at Heddleston's drug store.

STROUSS-HIRSHBERG'S of SALEM

Onslow, White Sox Manager, Fired

A's Also Have Office Shakeup

Jimmy Dykes Elevated To Assistant Manager

The ax has fallen on Manager Jack Onslow, striking a blow for the men vs women of the Comiskey clan, sole owners and operators of the Chicago White Sox.

Overcoming opposition from his mother and president of baseball's pioneer club, Mrs. Grace Comiskey, 24-year-old Chuck Comiskey and General Manager Frank Lane last night announced the firing of Onslow. It followed the 2-1 Sox defeat by the Cleveland Indians—their 22nd loss in 30 starts for the campaign.

John "Red" Corriden, 62-year-old minor and major league veteran serving his first hitch as a White Sox coach, was appointed field pilot for the remainder of the season.

Observers close to the White Sox said Vice-President Comiskey, grandson and namesake of the club's founder and heir apparent, had a showdown with his mother and other members of the family, including his sister, Mrs. Dorothy Rigney. He foresaw the firing of 60-year-old Onslow as a solution to the club's failure to win and the threat of a disastrous season at the box office.

Firing of Onslow and the vigorous shakeup of the Philadelphia A's high command has the baseball world buzzing today.

Even the New York Yankees' nine-game win streak and sizzling pace of the Brooklyn Dodgers are overshadowed by the managerial changes.

ONSLAW'S OUSTING came as no surprise. Jack's name had been on the wall since last fall because of a feud with the White Sox front office.

When Onslow heard the news he said, "They won't second guess me any more. As far as I'm concerned Lane (General Manager Frank Lane) can manage the team and Comiskey (Vice President Charles A. Comiskey) can coach at third base—or any place else he so desires." That tells the story.

Johnny (Red) Corriden, former Brooklyn and Yankee coach and minor league pilot, was moved up from coach to manager for the rest of the season.

The new deal at Philadelphia is more complicated. Manager and Club President Connie Mack, now 87, named Jimmy Dykes assistant manager and Mickey Cochrane general manager of the club. Both former Athletic greats were working for Connie as coaches.

While Dykes and Cochrane moved up, Connie's son, Earle, who has been running the club as assistant manager, became chief player scout. He is to leave "immediately" in search of new talent.

Both the White Sox and the A's have been bitter disappointments so far. The Sox are last, 14½ games behind the leaders and the A's are sixth, 13 games out.

Onslow's firing wasn't announced until after the Sox' 2-1 loss to Cleveland. The Philadelphia changes were released before they were beaten 2-0 by the Yankees.

HAL NEUHOUSER showed no traces of his shoulder trouble in his second route-going job against the St. Louis Browns. Hal gave the Browns six hits, riding home with an 11-2 win. It was the first half of a scheduled two-night doubleheader, but the second game was rained out.

The Boston Red Sox and Washington were not scheduled. Burt Shotton tried his Brooklyn relief pitcher, Jack Banta, as a starter and came up with a complete game victory, 5-1, over Boston and Johnny Sain, a six-time winner.

Despite their winning spurt, the Dodgers are unable to shake off the Phillies who remained one game back by whipping New York, 3-2. Robin Roberts struck out 11 Giants enroute to his sixth victory.

Roy Smalley was the difference between Chicago and Pittsburgh last night. The Cub shortstop hit a bases loaded home run in the fourth inning to give the Cubs a 4-0 victory.

Kenny Raffensberger, always rough for St. Louis, let down the Cardinals with six hits while Cincinnati banged out a 9-4 edge.

MERCHANTS PLAY SUNDAY
The Salem Merchants will play a County League game at 2:30 p. m. Sunday against Salineville at Centennial park. The team will be managed by Jack Milligan and Paul Bloor, following the dismissal of former manager, Walt Mellinger this week.

Yesterday's Stars
BATTING—Roy Smalley, Cubs—Hit home run with bases loaded for 4-0 victory over Pittsburgh.

PITCHING—Robin Roberts, Phillies—Struck out 11 Giants in earning sixth victory, 3-2.

Dick Wakefield Heads For Oakland Club

ANN ARBOR, Mich., May 27—(AP)—A chastened young man named Dick Wakefield is putting his pride in his pocket and heading back to the minors he left eight years ago.

Dick agreed yesterday—still with some reluctance—to abide by the New York Yankees' sale of his $17,000-a-year contract to the Oakland Oaks of the Pacific Coast League.

It was a man-to-man talk with Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler that led Wakefield to change his mind after saying for weeks he would quit baseball before going down to the minors.

He said he would leave for the West coast "within 48 hours—probably Sunday" to join the Oaks.

But the 29-year-old former University of Michigan star, who received a $52,000 bonus from the Detroit Tigers when he entered organized baseball in 1941, still seemed uncertain as to what turn his career might take next.

"I'll be back, bank on that," he promised.

Feller Registers Third Victory

Tribe Gives Him First Lead In 37 Innings

CHICAGO, May 27—(AP)—Bob Feller had his third victory of the season today because the Cleveland Indians finally got him a lead to work on after 37 innings.

After beating Detroit April 28, Feller had worked in five games without once having a lead in runs. During that time the Tribe had scored only four times when he was in the lineup. One of those runs was a homer by Feller and two others came on a fluke double.

Cleveland finally got him a lead last night in the eighth inning. A pair of runs came in then and that was enough for him to register a 2-1 win over Chicago.

Bob Kennedy singled and went to second as the ball rolled through Gus Zernial's legs in left field. Mickey Vernon walked but was forced at second by Larry Doby as Kennedy advanced to third. Then Al Rosen lined a double down the left field foul line and the two runs scored.

The win gave Feller a record of three wins against three losses and moved the Indians into an undisputed hold on fourth place, a half game ahead of Washington.

IT WAS a win Feller almost did not get credit for. The Indians were behind, 1-0, in the seventh and the former strike-out king faced the possibility of being lifted for a pinch-hitter for the third time in a row. Although the tying run was on first and there were two out, Manager Lou Boudreau decided to let the chucker bat and continue on the mound.

Chicago got its run in the fifth. Gordon Goldsberry walked, took second on Eddie Malone's pop fly which fell between Doby and Boudreau in short center, and raced to the plate on Chico Carrasquel's single.

During the long 37 innings, Feller lost to Boston, Washington and New York and was lifted out of two other games he was not charged with.

Mike Garcia goes to the mound today for the Indians as they resume their series with the White Sox. Garcia has beaten Chicago once and lost to Boston and New York. His opponent will be Walt Pierce, who has won two and lost three.

The Boston Red Sox and Washington were not scheduled. Burt Shotton tried his Brooklyn relief pitcher, Jack Banta, as a starter and came up with a complete game victory, 5-1, over Boston and Johnny Sain, a six-time winner.

Despite their winning spurt, the Dodgers are unable to shake off the Phillies who remained one game back by whipping New York, 3-2. Robin Roberts struck out 11 Giants enroute to his sixth victory.

Roy Smalley was the difference between Chicago and Pittsburgh last night. The Cub shortstop hit a bases loaded home run in the fourth inning to give the Cubs a 4-0 victory.

Glenn Young Ties State Record

Runs Highs in 14.6; Qualifies For Lows

COLUMBUS, O., May 27—(AP)—Today is the day they crown the schoolboy champions of Ohio track, baseball and tennis.

In track, it looks like a three-way race between Cleveland East Tech, Mansfield and Cincinnati Central Vocational in Class A. In Class B, Marysville got a one-point jump on Lockland yesterday as the broad jump and pole vault finals were run off.

In baseball, Cincinnati Withrow, 1934 and 1941 champions, meet Galion in the Class A finals. Middleport and Amelia will clash for the Class B crown. Only Withrow among the four finalists is a former state champion.

Cincinnati Walnut Hills was favored to continue its domination on the tennis courts. It has strong entries in both singles and doubles which survived the opening rounds.

In yesterday's Class A baseball competition, Withrow eliminated Youngstown East, 9-3, and unbeaten Galion won its 14th straight in defeating Akron Garfield, 6-5. It was Garfield's first defeat in 19 games. In Class B, Middleport nipped McCutchenville, 6-2, and Amelia beat Chardon, 9-1.

In the tennis division of the state competition, these teams remain in the singles field: Cincinnati Walnut Hills, Cincinnati Withrow, Dayton Northridge and Portsmouth. In doubles: Cincinnati Walnut Hills, Mansfield, Toledo Devilbiss and Dayton Oakwood. Semi-finals are scheduled this morning and the finals this afternoon.

THE THREE-WAY race for the track-field title loomed when Cincinnati Central, in six events, qualified four individuals and its 880-yard relay team for the finals. So did Cleveland Central, the defending champion, but the Cleveland crew isn't expected to have the all-around power in the finals to repeat.

The two teams expected to race Cincinnati Central right down to the wire for the state title, Mansfield and Cleveland E. Tech, both qualified three men and their relay teams yesterday. Eight events in which no qualifiers were held were slated to determine the outcome.

The stage thus was set for one of the closest track-field finishes in Ohio history.

Yesterday's Class B final track summaries, and the six-event preliminaries in each class in which preliminaries were held yesterday:

Class B (Finals)

Detroit Bowler Rolls 214-214

COLUMBUS, O., May 27—(AP)—Harold Asplund, Denver, Colo., man now bowling out of Detroit, brought on the week's biggest cheer in the American Bowling Congress tournament last night when he finished his singles.

He was high for the day with a 642—but he was also shooting the best carbon copy score of the 42-day-old event. He had games of 214-214-214.

A member of the Stroh team of Detroit, Asplund also was involved in the day's top doubles count, getting 625 while paired with Buzz Fazio's 583 for 1208.

Next best was by teammates on the same alleys, Pete Carter (541) and Lee Jougland (664) shooting 1205. The team counted 8717 in the team all-events race, 260 pins short of what Detroit E and B has for the lead.

Best all-events of the day went to Pete Carter whose 666 was a highlight Thursday night. He tallied 541 and 602 Friday for 1809.

The high team yesterday was the Kaminski Market of Grand Rapids, Mich. 2690.

Yesterday was the fifth day without a change among the top 10 leaders in the various events in the first 42 of the 60-day event.

Grid Conference Makes Peace

Ohio Scholastic Loop Elects New Officers

BY FRITZ HOWELL

COLUMBUS, O., May 27—(AP)—Frank Pauly, round athletic director of Toledo Waite High school, is the new president of the Ohio Scholastic Conference, often referred to as the toughest high school football loop in America.

Pauly was elected last night as the six-club circuit signed a peace pact on the most controversial subject which has threatened its existence.

The league adopted a resolution which stated: "The Ohio Scholastic Conference will take no part, as a league, in determining any championship other than its own."

The resolution arose from a bitter fight last fall in which Massillon High school refused to go along with a conference decision to back the league's champion for the state title.

Mansfield won the league championship but Massillon was voted state champion in the Associated Press poll. Massillon insisted the league, composed of six schools, should take no part in the naming of a state champion, despite the prestige of the circuit.

Pauly, long the peace-maker in the league, offered the resolution, which was seconded by Chuck Mather, Massillon athletic director.

Pauly stressed that the league never had an idea of swaying opinion in the annual state championship poll by Ohio sports writers, but declared the six-club circuit should have high consideration each year because of the competition its members meet.

MATHER HAD threatened to withdraw Massillon as a member of the league if the other schools insisted on backing the loop's champion as the state title-holder. Mansfield inflicted the only loss on Massillon's team last fall, but the sports writers voted Massillon into the state championship.

Herman (Bup) Rearick of Canton McKinley was elected vice president of the conference, and Ike Hise of Massillon was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

The conference awarded Canton the league's spring sports carnival to be staged May 5, 1951.

The controversy over the league backing its champion for the state title has raged for months. Bitter personal exchanges between the coaches have featured league meetings since the close of the 1949 grid season, but last night's session was a peaceful one.

"This is like signing a peace pact after a world war," one of the athletic directors commented, as a resolution was adopted.

In adopting the resolution, the league's delegates admitted that the state's other 500-odd teams also had a claim on the state title, but they insisted the Ohio Scholastic Conference played the toughest schedule in Ohio.

Members of the conference are Canton McKinley, Massillon, Mansfield, Alliance, Warren and Toledo Waite.

George Adkins Ruled Off Turf For Life

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 26—(INS)—George Adkins, who jockeyed Nallie Boy in the Kentucky Derby, has been ruled off the turf for life for using an electric buzzer on the thoroughbred in another race.

Officials at Churchill Downs race track yesterday announced Adkins' ouster by the Thoroughbred Racing Protective Association and said the jockey admitted his guilt after the fifth race last Saturday at Churchill Downs.

Steward Jack Goode saw Adkins slip a buzzer into a groom's sweater pocket as the jockey returned to the enclosure after finishing sixth in the race. A track detective searched his room and found the "battery."

Walcott Takes On German Champion

MANNHEIM, Germany, May 27—(AP)—A German boxer who couldn't even get a fight in America last year will climb into the ring against Jersey Joe Walcott tomorrow to bid for a shot at the world heavyweight title.

It's the chance of a lifetime for Hein Ten Hoff, but the betting odds said he won't cash in on it. Walcott ruled a solid favorite.

It's the Germans' first big international ring show since Hitler started them fighting with guns instead of gloves. Some 60,000 will probably cheer their national champion, Walcott's cheering section will include about 8,000 American soldiers.

Gian's Call Cost Henrich

Judge Landis Ruled Against Bill Terry

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEW YORK—(NEA)—At the dinner given for Ed Barrow, old-time Yankees and National Leaguers who opposed them in World Series.

Bill Terry revealed for the first time how the Giants missed landing Tom Henrich—by the margin of a telephone call.

"And I got there with too much and too early," not with too little and too late, smiled the man who led and batted the New York Nationals to their last three pennants.

It was Terry who arranged the close spring training relationship between the Giants and Indians, showed the latter how to get money barnstorming. Memphis Will consequently was close to Alva Bradley, then president of the Cleveland club.

AS GENERAL MANAGER of the Tribe, Cy Slapnicka experienced difficulty keeping the outfit's minor league contracts straight. He would have lost Bob Feller, under the then rule prohibiting a major league club from signing a sandlot player, had not Kenesaw Mountain Landis feared a $100,000 bonus might go to the head of a 17-year-old.

Anyway, Slapnicka persisted in keeping Henrich in the minors when the scouts of every other club told the up-and-coming Old Reliable he was an out-and-out, can't-miss major leaguer.

Henrich finally got tired of it, wrote Landis.

When in April, 1937, Bradley got the bad news that Henrich was to be declared a free agent, he quickly advised his friend and training season business associate, Terry.

Terry immediately put in a telephone call for Henrich, made his best pitch. Henrich said he would let him know.

A short while later, Terry's telephone rang. It was Judge Landis.

"Terry," said the commissioner who was the last word, "did you contact Tom Henrich regarding his contract?"

"Yes, I did, Judge," replied Terry.

"Well, then," said the stern old czar, "now you can't have him under any circumstances."

LANDIS OBVIOUSLY chose to make his own announcements when he decided to declare an athlete free to sign elsewhere and pick up a substantial sum.

Henrich got $25,000 from the Yankees.

Had Henrich gone to the Giants, the Polo Grounders easily might have gone on winning pennants.

Terry might still be there, for an inspirational ballplayer, especially one as versatile as Henrich, contributes mightily to an organization. Henrich could have been the band binding the Giants together for a more sustained run.

The Yankees are worried about him for the first time in 14 years, by the way.

ELECTRO TREAT

PROCESS

Used In Quality Dry Cleaning

The Electro-Treat process means tomorrow's dry cleaning methods today. It ends graying—whites stay white and pastel shades sparkle in their true colors.

Electro-Treat eliminates the cause of graying—it drains away the electro-static field generated by the washer action and, there being no magnetic attraction, soil remains in suspension in the solvent and is carried away. We do not say that gray materials can be made white. They cannot be—but white can be kept white—and colors can be returned with new-like freshness.

Fear, Hysteria Raised By GOP, Biddle Claims

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 27—(AP)—Former Attorney General Francis Biddle said today Republican leaders in Congress are stirring up a "campaign of fear and hysteria" to advance their political aims.

"In their anxiety to kill off the Fair Deal and return this country to isolationism," Biddle said "the Tafts, the Wherrys and the McCarthys have shown an amazing contempt for basic liberties."

"Never has America been afflicted with such sordid, unfounded and irresponsible attacks upon the good name of its government."

Biddle loosed his blast in a speech prepared for a convention of the International Ladies Garment Workers Union. He spoke as national chairman of Americans for Democratic Action (ADA), an organization which in the past has championed the policies of the Truman Administration.

"The damage that this campaign of fear and hysteria has done to civil liberties," Biddle said, "has a special meaning for organized labor. Fear, doubt and suspicion all tend to hold up normal democratic processes."

"The lesson of history is plain on this point: Fear holds up reform; as more and more fear is aroused you begin to get more and more restrictions on society."

This, he added, is the objective of "certain elements" in Congress. The Taft-Hartley law, he said, "is bad enough, but if Senator McCarthy and his pals are able to whip up enough hysteria, I predict that an even worse law will be enacted."

PLAN LISBON CONCERT

HOSE CLAMP LOST

CONSULATE WILL CLOSE
CLEVELAND, May 27—(AP)—Stanislav Dvorak, whose Czechoslovakian consulate here has been ordered closed by the United States government, announced today he would join the Czech delegation to the United Nations. The consulate has been ordered closed Monday in retaliation for the closing of American consulates in Czechoslovakia.

Ferguson Hopeful Of Truman's Help

WASHINGTON, May 27—(AP)—Little Joe Ferguson returns to Ohio today with the hope that President Truman will journey to the Buckeye state to aid in his campaign against U. S. Sen. Robert A. Taft.

The Ohio auditor, who is Democratic nominee for Senator, met with the President yesterday. He asked Mr. Truman to come to Ohio on a campaign speaking tour, but apparently received no definite assurance.

Ferguson said: "I have hopes the President will make the trip. I assured the President I am going to defeat Mr. Taft by more than a quarter of a million votes. That seemed to please him."

The auditor told newsmen "Taft's bad record" will be the principal issue stressed in his campaign.

He said he would wage "an aggressive campaign and see the people down the highways and byways and in the side streets."

Ferguson said he has been promised the support of all the Democratic candidates he defeated for the senatorial nomination. But he declined to speculate on whether he also would get backing from Murray D. Lincoln, Ohio Farm Bureau leader who once talked of running against Taft.

Reuther Promises Thorough Inquiry

TOLEDO, May 27—(AP)—Both factions in strike-torn CIO-United Auto Workers Local 12 had the word of their union's president today that there will be "no whitewash" in an investigation of the local's leadership.

This pledge was made yesterday in Detroit by Walter Reuther. He declared: "I can assure anybody there will be no whitewash. If things are wrong in Toledo, we'll take steps to correct them."

An insurgent group, claiming to represent 5,000 to 7,000 of Local 12's 30,000-35,000 membership, has accused Richard T. Gosser, a UAW vice president, of "dictatorial" tactics in the operation of the local. Seven of the 125 units in the local are associated with the revolt.

Reuther made his "no-whitewash" pledge in a news conference. He said an investigation now under way by a committee headed by UAW Secretary-Treasurer Emil Mazey is being conducted at his insistence.

He added he will be willing to talk with any of the parties to the dispute later on, presumably after the committee has investigated the dispute.

PLAN SUMMER CONCERTS

CLEVELAND, May 27—(AP)—Samuel R. Rosenbaum, trustee for the Music Performance Trust Fund of New York, today announced the grant of $4,500 for a pop concert series by the Cleveland summer orchestra. He said a recommendation made by the Cleveland Federation of Musicians had been necessary before he could grant the money. The fund is derived from royalties on sales of records and transcriptions.
